

The Book at a Glance

“Finding the Last Hungry Heart is a poignant story of nostalgia, wisdom, and change that celebrates the innocence of youth, the courage necessary to live through it, and the kind of camaraderie that reaches across generations.”
—John L. Stanizzi, author of Ecstasy Among Ghosts

FROM THE AUTHOR OF DEEP TRAVEL,
THE LAST UNDISCOVERED PLACE AND TINKER'S DAMN

Enter a world where the past is present and stories matter. Teens climb a landfill fence, the 1960s come alive, and a disillusioned refugee from those turbulent years rediscovers himself.

DAVID K. LEFF is a freelance writer from Collinsville, Connecticut. His essays, poems and fiction have appeared in newspapers and magazines. He is the author of the nonfiction works, The Last Undiscovered Place, which was a Connecticut Book Award finalist, Deep Travel and Hidden in Plain Sight. He has also penned two volumes of poetry, The Price of Water and Depth of Field, which pairs poems with his own photographs.
