“Ensuring that the mainstream isn’t the only stream.”

“...Drink deeply: this free verse wellspring is vivid and thought-provoking and quenches the thirst for inspiration.”

—Diane Donovan, Midwest Book Review

“Nawrocki over and over convinces us that the observed and the felt—be it painting, place or person—forever clings to and changes the observer. A warm, rich, valuable and important collection.”

—Dick Allen, Connecticut State Poet Laureate (2010-2015), author of This Shadowy Place: Poems

AMY NAWROCKI is a Connecticut native, raised in Newtown and now living in Hamden. She earned a Bachelor's degree from Sarah Lawrence College and a Masters of Fine Arts from the University of Arkansas. She has received numerous honors for her poetry, including awards from the Litchfield Review Poetry Contest, the Codhill Chapbook Competition, The Loft Anthology, Phi Kappa Phi, New Millennium Writings, and the Connecticut Poetry Society. She is the author of five poetry collections: Potato Eaters, Nomad's End, Lune de Miel, Four Blue Eggs and Reconnaissance. With her husband, Eric D. Lehman, she wrote A History of Connecticut Wine, A History of Connecticut Food and Literary Connecticut. She teaches English and Creative Writing at the University of Bridgeport and is mother to two cats, Maple and Django.
