

NEW WORKS from Thomas Keating

"As a translator, I am deeply moved by the way Thomas Keating was able to convey the essence of Christian mystical teachings so clearly to those of us in other traditions, welcoming all to the table of love."
—Mirabai Starr, author of God of Love and Wild Mercy

Partnering with Contemplative Outreach Ltd., Wayfarer Books is thrilled to announce the release of five never-before-published titles from Fr. Thomas Keating, coming in 2024 and 2025.

Discover the three titles that have been released thus far: God Is All in All, Heartfulness, and That We May Be One. These offerings includes inspiring forewords by notable voices such as Adam Bucko, Theodore Richards, and Cynthia Bourgeault. Don't miss out on these profound works!

Beloved Trappist monk Thomas Keating is best known as one of the primary founders of the Centering Prayer movement, which made the contemplative dimension of Christianity accessible through a simple method of silent, still meditation. He is also known as the convener of the Snowmass Interreligious Conference, which helped spawn the global Interspiritual movement. Keating's open invitation to people of all walks to embark on a spiritual journey, coupled with his emphasis on the oneness of all creation, made him a 20th-century harbinger of 21st-century ideals.

Published by Wayfarer Books

Press Contact: wayfarer@homeboundpublications.com

All Wayfarer titles are globally distributed by Ingram.

We offer the Standard Trade Discount & Full Returnability.

Heartfulness

978-1-956368-97-0 / Full Color / Trade Paperback / 136pp / 5 x 8

God is All in All

9781956368451 / Full Color / Trade Paperback / 120pp/ 5x8

That We May Be One

978-1-956368-98-7 / Full Color / Trade Paperback / 120pp/ 5x8