

subhuman is a compelling and unflinching exploration of life behind bars, written during the author's incarceration. Through the lens of a Black, queer man, this work sheds light on the often unspoken physical, emotional, and spiritual challenges faced by the incarcerated. subhuman is a poignant and necessary read, offering a voice to those whose stories are too often left untold.

subhuman

POEMS BY

Kashawn Taylor

Kashawn Taylor holds a BA in English and Psychology and an MA in English and Creative Writing. Before his incarceration, he established a strong academic foundation, which he has continued to build upon during his time in prison. His "prison writing" has been featured in several publications, including Prison Journalism Project, The Blotter Magazine, Minutes Before Six, Evening Street Review's DIY Prison Project, and Indiana Review.

Published by Wayfarer Books

PBK 978-1-965320-28-0

March 25, 2025 / Trade Paperback / 120pp / 6 x 9

Contact: wayfarer@homeboundpublications.com

All Wayfarer titles are globally distributed by Ingram.

We offer the Standard Trade Discount & Full Returnability.

